

CONGRATULATIONS, SCOMA'S RESTAURANT!

You've been accepted into the Sustainable Seafood Alliance. Your current level is PLATINUM.

As leaders in marine conservation and climate change advocacy, Smithsonian affiliated Aquarium of the Bay in San Francisco is proud to welcome Scoma's Restaurant as a partner and promoter of the Sustainable Seafood movement.

Acceptance into the Alliance grants you access to Aquarium of the Bay's sustainable seafood recommendations, Sustainable Seafood Alliance logos, social media and website advertising, promotional opportunities, and educational resources.

Commitment to the Alliance is valid for 12 months and will be reviewed for renewal by the Aquarium of the Bay and the restaurant upon year mark. If before the 12 month mark your restaurant feels as though its reached the next level, submit an inquiry to seanw@bayecotarium.org.

By pledging commitment to Aquarium of the Bay's Sustainable Seafood Alliance you are agreeing to follow the guidelines outlined in this pamphlet and uphold the standard set by Aquarium of the Bay. Failure to follow these guidelines will result in the loss of certification and membership in the Alliance.

Together we can enable conversations on climate resilience and ocean conservation globally and inspire actionable change locally through responsible seafood sourcing and consuming.

Certificate of Sustainability Awarded to:

SCOMA'S RESTAURANT

For being a leader and advocate for responsible seafood sourcing and consumption.

Aquarium of the Bay recognizes this establishment as a pioneering entity for outstanding sustainable practices within the restaurant industry.

A handwritten signature in white ink, appearing to read "George Jacob", is positioned above the name and title.

George Jacob
President and CEO